

A CME on Prenatal Screening

From Risk to Reality: Practical Insights into Prenatal Screening

This one-day CME is designed to bridge the gap between guidelines and real-world decision-making, helping clinicians navigate prenatal screening with confidence and clarity.

WHY ATTEND

Stay ahead in prenatal care with a power-packed CME that combines scientific updates with practical insights into prenatal screening, interpretation of challenging cases, meaningful patient counselling, and informed clinical choices.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

- Fundamentals and concepts of prenatal screening
- Aneuploidy screening: current best practices
- Preeclampsia and preterm birth risk assessment
- Latest updates in Non-Invasive Prenatal Testing (NIPT)
- Screening in multiple pregnancies
- Couple carrier screening
- Interactive expert panel on real-life dilemmas: Report interpretation, Screen-positive cases, Increased NT, Absent nasal bone, Soft markers, and more

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Postgraduate students & fellows
- Obstetricians & Radiologists
- Maternal & Fetal Medicine specialists

Fernandez Hospital
Educational & Research
Foundation

Available in Hybrid mode

12 APRIL 2026

9 AM - 5 PM

Auditorium,
Fernandez Clinic,
Necklace Road

REGISTRATION FEES

₹ 3,500

(Onsite & Online)

Telangana Medical Council
(TGMC) Credit points are awaited!

HURRY, RESERVE YOUR SEAT, TODAY!

<https://rzp.io/rzp/CW7fNzE>

Contact information

Department of Fetal Medicine

+91 40 41411215 / +91 8008902042

beaula.a@fernandez.foundation